Leannette T.
Medical Billing & Coding

MEDICAL BILLING & CODING

Certificate of Achievement / Associate Degree Program

Carrington's Medical Billing and Coding program prepares students for entry-level employment preparing various health claim forms using medical billing software. They acquire a working knowledge of human anatomy and medical terminology, as well as comprehension of the legal, ethical and regulatory standards of medical records management. The program culminates in a Certificate of Achievement or Associate of Science degree.

CARRINGTON COLLEGE®

The Starting Point for Health Care Careers.®

877-623-1442
CARRINGTON.EDU

Important information about the educational debt, earnings and completion rate of students who attended this program can be found at Carrington.edu/GE.

Program availability varies by location. Carrington College reserves the right to update information as it becomes available. For the most updated information, visit carrington.edu.

©2017 Carrington College. All rights reserved. CMP_PGO_MBC_161212