Important information about the educational debt, earnings and completion rate of students who attended these programs can be found at Carrington.edu/GE.

Scholarship awards cannot exceed tuition charges and will be applied directly to those charges. In the event that a student's tuition charges are less than the scheduled scholarship award, the scholarship will be reduced to the amount of the tuition charge. In the event of early withdrawal, the scholarship award will be limited to the same percentage of tuition earned in accordance with the college's refund policy.
