

PHYSICAL THERAPIST ASSISTANT

Associate Degree Program

Carrington's Physical Therapist Assistant program prepares students to function as entry-level practitioners under the supervision of a physical therapist.

The is a mix of formal instruction, laboratory practice and hands-on clinical experience.

Students who successfully complete the Physical Therapist Assistant program are eligible to take the National Physical Therapy Examination (NPTE) for PTAs*. To work as a physical therapist assistant in California, graduates must also pass the California Law Examination (CLE), which relates to the practice of physical therapy. The program culminates in an Associate of Science degree.

Tiffany B.
Physical Therapist Assistant

CARRINGTON COLLEGE®

The Starting Point for Health Care Careers®

877-623-1442
CARRINGTON.EDU

* Carrington College prepares students to take appropriate certification and licensure exams related to their individual majors. The College does not guarantee students will successfully pass these exams or be certified or licensed as a result of completing the program. Credential preparation varies by location.

Important information about the educational debt, earnings and completion rate of students who attended this program can be found at Carrington.edu/GE.

Program availability varies by location. Carrington College reserves the right to update information as it becomes available. For the most updated information, visit carrington.edu.